ALL HIS PIPES WERE STOLEN.

Mysterious Burglary of Friedrich's Meerschm Factory.

Police officials are much interested today over the mysterious burglary of the Meerschm Factory, which took place on Sunday morning, in which nearly $4,000 worth of valuable pipes were taken away.

The place was once before robbed of a quantity of valuable pipes Feb. 7, 1891, and though the police of the Mulberry street station endeavored to find the thieves, no one up to date has been arrested for that burglary.

Friedrich himself discovered that he had been robbed when he went to his store at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He found that the thieves had taken down the window shutters and cut a hole in the glass door enough for a man to enter. A newspaper smeared with muck, which had been used to remove the pane of glass without noise, was found outside the door, and on the floor of the store was another newspaper which had evidently covered a human.

Friedrich's entire stock of meerschm pipes, 500 in all, had been taken out of the showcases, and the store had been cleaned out of everything of value.

Friedrich reported his discovery to the Mulberry street police station, and Police Headquarters and two detectives were put on the case. After investigating they concluded that the burglary was the work of expert cracksmen.

Policeman White was on the post along

Broome street from 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He was relieved by Patrolman Patrick Kennedy, who turned over the post to Officer Flaherty at 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

No report was made by either of the officers of the burglary. On the contrary, each of the three declared that he had looked into the store several times and everything had appeared to be all right.

Though Friedrich and the police that he suspected a man named Daniel Kennedy, little stock was apparently taken in his showcases. He was, however, not suspicious of the police in ferreting out the burglars who robbed him before, and declares that they enjoyed him to say nothing to the newspapers of his loss until the thieves were captured.

Capt. Meakin of the Mulberry street station, reported this morning, an ex-tensive search of the files of the station showed that Friedrich was mistaken when he declared that the police tried to suppress the fact of the former burglary, as it had been published in all the newspapers.

We shall make a complaint against Policeman White, Kennedy and Flaherty," he added,

"for not discovering the burglary, and we shall go on our best behavior, and we shall be satisfied if the police are not

suspicious of the police in ferreting out the

captured.

LAWYER AND CLIENT IN JAIL.

Foster and Tutthill Both Held by

Sing Sing's Police Justice.

(SING SING, March 21.—) Lawyer Warren W.

Foster, of 201 Broadway, New York, and brock Broker Benjamin H. Tutthill, of 40

Broadway, are still in jail here, in default of $1,500 bail each, on charges of grand larceny and conspiracy to obtain property belonging to Daniel Lane, a convict in the State prison, by false pretenses. The story was told exclusively in THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Tutthill was held in jail over Sunday, while

Foster had been released on bail. Yesterday

Foster came to Sing Sing with a bondman for Tutthill. The bondman said he was Dr.

MacDougal, and owned the house 272 Seventh avenue.

Justice Gibney being ill, the case was transferred to Justice Reynolds. The latter opened court, but before anything could be done,

Foster and Tutthill were both rearrested on the conspiracy charge, and Justice Reynolds fixed the bail as stated above.

The bondman having gone home, leaving the $1,000 bond for Tutthill, the men were both taken back to jail. The hearing will take place Wednesday morning.

There is no disputing the fact that you can display more stock in six buildings than in one; we are doing this we are forced to sell cheap in order to move stock quickly and enable us to have fresh goods always on hand; how we succeed our patrons can testify.

We keep constantly reducing prices on goods that do not move as they should,

and therefore always have some exceptional bargains.

This week we offer two styles of

Chamber Suits,

finish antique, about 200 of each pattern, at

$15.00 and $18.00 PER SUIT, that cannot be matched.
